Seminar Agenda

8:00 am – 9:30 am. Terminate Transcript Turmoil

What if a small change in HOW you edit could result in better realtime in only two weeks. This means much shorter editing time to crank out a transcript! We're going to spin you 180 degrees from how you do things now and show you just how much time and energy you are going to save. This is one seminar you will not want to miss! "Simple Syllables" book complements this seminar.

Presenter: Anissa R. Nierenberger (1.5 hours or 0.15)

9:45 am – 11:15 am Just Okay is Not Okay

While realtime does not mean perfection, how do you know if your realtime measures up as a salable product? Let's look beyond the gray and examine concrete, real-world examples of what is great, good, and just okay. Just because you can read through it, doesn't mean that your clients can. Anissa will debunk untranslated rate myths and other misperceptions about quality realtime. She'll also provide solutions to common stacking, easy brief ideas and why you should be editing in a way that school never taught you! If you've felt "in the dark" regarding realtime standards, you won't want to miss this presentation!

Presenter: Anissa R. Nierenberger (1.5 hours or 0.15)

11:15 am – 1:30 pm Standing STRONG For Our Profession

When we are STRONGer together, WE can change our destiny. NCRA STRONG works as one of the most active committees in NCRA's long history. Seminars presented by STRONG are designed to inform the audience on recent marketplace developments and the quickly evolving privacy rules and regulations impacting our profession.

Each seminar presented will contain the most current information and have a panel of experts available from the STRONG Committee. You also will receive a link to the STRONG library, where templates and tools are available to you to showcase the ways in which stenographic reporting surpasses other methods so you may appropriately inform consumers. Committee members include, Stacey Raikes, Chair; Phyllis-Craver Lykken, Elizabeth Harvey, Andrea Kreutz, Lisa Migliore Black, Lillian Freiler, Lindsay Stoker, Margaret Turner, Lin Riffle, Angie Starbuck and Sue Terry. In each STRONG seminar, all committee members who are available will attend and provide input and answer questions.

Presenter: Sue Terry (2.0 Hours or .20)
(includes 15-minute lunch break – working lunch)

1:30 pm – 2:30 pm Preserving an Admissible Record

Do your clients and the legal community you engage with know the true importance of hiring a Certified Shorthand Reporter? Do they understand what “capturing every word” means, providing immediate read-backs and clarifications, not to mention rough drafts and expedites? Dennis will share, from an attorney’s perspective, how to keep your clients satisfied with your services, how to communicate effectively the complexities of your job and why it’s important to share that you are a Certified Shorthand Reporter to ensure a transcript is admissible in a Court of Law.

Presenter: Dennis M. Holmgren, Esq. (1.0 hour or .10)

2:45 pm – 4:45 pm Ethics Roundtable

Haven’t you heard “There are no stupid questions”? This is your moment to ask procedural questions, situational questions, UFM questions -- anything pertaining to our Code of Ethics and Governing Rules. With over 210 years of reporting experience combined, join our TEXDRA board for an open roundtable discussion. We will begin this two-hour session with the current hot topics and then go into question-and-answering dialogue. Go ahead: Ask that question that we all want an answer to!

Presenters: Karen Usher (President), Lucile Wyatt (President Elect), Kelly Hanna (Past President), Keith Oakley, Vonda Treat, Karen Schoeve, Trisha Myler, and Connor Oakley (2.0 hours or .20)

4:45 pm – 5:45 pm Game Time – Ethics

Top five answers on the board. Name a parenthetical used within a transcript from a remote deposition setting. “Welcome to the Family Feud!” Let’s have some fun while refreshing our minds using our professional Code of Ethics. The second half of the hour will be a virtual game of Kahoot! -- an interactive, high-energy game for all to participate in.

Presenter: Terri Nelson (1.0 hour or .10)

6:00 pm – 7:00 pm How to Show Up: In Person or Virtually

How are you showing up to your depositions, arbitrations, EUOs, or in court? Are you dressing for success and presenting yourself in a professional manner? Whether you are attending proceedings in person or virtually, how you show up matters. We'll chat about why you need to “show up” every time you walk out the door or attend virtually.

Presenter: Elisa Ellis (1.0 hour or .10)
